Hi,

As usual, Beat Haldimann will be exhibiting with the AHCI this year at Basel. He will not only have examples of H1 - his marvelous central tourbillon wristwatch, but he will also be showing his Double Regulator "Resonance - Classic" clock, which is destined for the horological museum in La-Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland (Musée international d'Horlogerie).

Now, a couple of pics for your viewing pleasure:

For those of you visiting Basel this year - say hello to Beat, you won't regret it!

Here is a post regarding Beat & Basel 2003. Also, please note who did some of the graphic work in this link... Volker Vyskocil! The other name associated with the graphics in this link is Andreas Strehler (one of the most clever and inventive minds in watchmaking).

Cheers,

Curtis
